About AeroSport:

Besides selling light sport aircraft and powered paramotors, AeroSport also provides vehicle detailing services. Owner, Jeremy Knoll, has owned a successful detailing business for over 23 years. Jeremy, a Private Pilot himself, understands the need to keep a clean and airworthy aircraft. Also having the Light Sport Repairman Maintenance certificate issued by the FAA, Jeremy pays close attention to detail when it comes to maintenance and upkeep of aircraft. Having his extra set of eyes over your aircraft will surely be a great benefit as he can point out any issues he finds during the detailing process that may require attention. Rest assured that AeroSport will treat your aircraft like one of their own!
